

CONJUNCTIONS

but so

and

or because

Circle the correct option:

1. Do you prefer playing tennis but / or / so watching TV?
2. Mark likes reading and / but / because playing the guitar.
3. I was hungry, because / so / but I ate a sandwich.
4. My younger sister is sweet or / so / and kind.
5. My father is washing the car and / so / because it is dirty.
6. I like singing, because / but / or I don't like dancing.
7. I went to the park but / and / because it was sunny.
8. You can read so / and / but play computer games.
9. I had a fever, so / because / and I went to see the doctor.
10. He wants to buy a car, but / because / and he has no money.
11. I opened the window and / so / because it was very hot.
12. Peter didn't study, so / and / because he failed the exam.
13. He never reads books or / and / so watches TV after class.
14. This worksheet is fun but / because / and easy.
15. She can draw very well, but / because / and she can't cook.