

Snack time!

Down:

1. A small, fried, circular cake, usually with a hole in the middle.
2. A sweet, usually brown, food made from cacao seeds, that is usually sold in a block.
6. Food made from milk with bacteria added to it. You can add sugar, cereal or fruit.
7. Very thin, round pieces of fried potatoes, sold in plastic bags.
10. A very cold, sweet food made from frozen milk or cream, sugar, and a flavour.

Across:

3. American English word for biscuits.
4. Two pieces of bread with cheese, salad, or meat between them.
5. A cooked sausage in a long piece of bread, often with ketchup or mustard.
8. Oranges, apples, pears, blueberries and bananas are just a few examples.
9. They are naturally sweet dried grapes.
11. It's a hamburger with a slice of cheese.
12. A snack composed of cereal compressed into a bar shape.
13. American English word for fizzy drink.
14. Nuts with a hard shell. They're a good source of vitamins.

